[Check one or more as appropriate]

- 1. Tenant's authorization for third party to act as agent. Tenant authorizes the following person to enter the space, remove all contents, abandon property, and give releases on behalf of Tenant: _____
name of person
- 2. Tenant's permission for Lessor to cut Tenant's lock. Tenant requests and authorizes Lessor to cut Tenant's lock on the space and will pay the lock-cutting charge as set forth in the Rental Agreement. Tenant agrees that Lessor is not responsible for any damage to contents of unit or other damage that may result from removing the lock.
- 3. Tenant's acknowledgment that all contents are removed. Tenant or the person acting for Tenant and named in paragraph 1 above has removed all contents which were stored in Tenant's space in the self-storage facility in the same condition as which they were stored.
- 4. Tenant's acknowledgment of receipt of contents seized under Lessor's lien. Tenant or the person acting for Tenant and named in paragraph 1 above has received all of the contents of Tenant's space which were seized by Lessor under Lessor's lien for non-payment of sums due. Such contents are in the same condition as at the time of seizure.
- 5. Tenant's abandonment of contents. Tenant or the person acting for Tenant and named in paragraph 1 above has abandoned all property left in Tenant's unit(s) or space(s). Lessor may enter and throw away, give away, or sell such remaining property and keep the proceeds.

Tenant acknowledges that Lessor may re-rent such storage space, commencing the day after the effective date indicated below. Tenant acknowledges that execution of this release by Tenant does not constitute a release by Lessor of Tenant's liability for past due rents and other charges due under the Rental Agreement. Tenant releases the owner and management company, if any, of the self-storage facility and their employees or agents from all claims and demands of every nature and kind for any loss, damage, injury, expense, or liability.
